HAUBERK CAPTURES MARYLAND HANDICAP

Dartworth Beat Out a Large Field in Fifth Event.

By GEORGE B. MORRIS.

Bowie, Md., Nov. 25.—By defeating a good field in the Southern Maryland Handicap at Bowie today J. F. Sweeney's recent acquisition, Hauberk, won his fourth consecutive race at the Prince George track. This son of Martinet and Druid recently purchased by Mr. Sweeney is a full brother to the good racer Gainer. He was raced as a 2-year-old with much success by Dick Williams, but had to be sold at a dispersal sale of the Holland Stable and was bought by William R. Cox, of New York, but was raced with little success on the Metropolitan race courses. During the recent Laurel meeting Mr. Sweeney made a good offer for the gelding and obtained him, the terms of the sale being strictly private. He was turned over to Fred Mumate, who immediately worked wonders with him. He met defeat in his first start in the new silks, but rewarded his connections by his first start at Bowie. Since then he has met and defeated the best of the handicap division with the exception of Leochares and many are now betting that he would furnish a good contest with the Orr gelding.

Hauberk's victory in the handicap yesterday was truly an impressive one. Shouldering 120 pounds he conceded the weight to all his opponents and scored in an easy manner. Celso and Squelcher made the early pace but gave way in the final furlongs to Kewassa which at that stage appeared the winner. Butwell nursed the winner into a good position at this angle and made his final move well within the last sixteenth, disposing of Kewassa in the last twenty yards and won going away.

The Brookdale handicap for two year olds at seven furlongs proved an easy victory for S. T. Zollner's Frost Cake which scored in a clever manner from Bondage and Dandy Dude. The winner well handled down into a winning leading in the first furlong and never left the issue in doubt.

The largest field that has far this meeting participated in the running of the fifth event and the winner proved a surprise in the form of the aged gelding Dartworth which was absolutely neglected in the betting. A $2 ticket returned nearly seventy holders. The round gutters and twenty-pound balls added an element of luck to the tenpin game which made it the most popular indoor sport of the National Capital and as such it held away for over fifteen years.

Along comes a few wise heads who ordered the gutters shall be squared, the ball in no case to weigh over sixteen pounds and several other changes that brought the game down to a purely scientific standpoint, where the man with the best pinning ability always came out on top, even if it was only over a short route of three games or for the season. What was the result? The interest in the game dropped off and as the interest dropped off the "amateur" bowler began to look around for some other game that would give him a change once in a year to come out a winner. And so it was with any game where science alone determines the winner. Take billiards, for instance. Here is one of the grandest games ever introduced. But what is it today? A game that is fast losing its place in the sporting world for the very reason that one man who perhaps possesses uncanny ability goes out and continually keeps on winning until a match wherein he is one of the principals is nothing other than a workout with some poor fellow looking for the loser's end of the purse. And so it was with the tenpin game. They kept on adding fifts to the game until perhaps one or two men in each city stood out at the head of the bunch and it was useless to pit any one against them. Take the case of Harry Kraus in this burg for instance. Five years ago shooting against the Flying Dutchman was like dropping the kale in the ocean. Again we ask what was the result? Kraus was a winner before the match started. And what game is going to survive under such conditions?

The tenpin game in this hamlet didn't.

Bowling and Billiards
by Len Collins

Attention, Billiardists!

There will be a meeting in the office of the Sporting Editor of The Herald, Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock, of those interested in forming a pocket billiard league from the executive and independent offices of the government service.

Any one interested in a team, or the formation of the league, should be present at this meeting.

And it did not in a whole lot more of burrs where they tried the game with the fancy trimmings, as for instance, Baltimore.

This idle chatter about trying to throw a monkey wrench into the machinery of the duck game by introducing this latest association is a lot of con. Any bird that has the nerve to make an attempt to sidetrack the small pins in this city might as well streak it for the tall and stout with the satisfaction of having tried to bring the skeleton out of the closet, and that is all. Of course, there are a few idiots left in the tenpin game who have the crust to wall that the duck game is ninety-nine one hundredths luck and you will find a few rabid small pin devotees who are ignorant enough to state that the big pin game is pretty much to the bum, but listen, any old time one of these two varieties of nuts attempt an argument along that line, let 'em rave. They are either knackers pure and simple or else their sporting proclivities are at such a low ebb that they would knock their own brother for the sake of a bum argument.

Live and let live. If there are enough tenpinners left to make an interesting tourney for not only those who may participate in it, but also those who might delight in witnessing the old game again being rolled as it once was, bring on the music. There is room for both games in this city. So why rap the other guy's game. Let's all get together and bowler the other fellow's favorite style of pinning. Knocking won't hurt it any, and a boost might do some good. Any way, a boost sounds a whole lot better, no matter what its place.

Is the straight rail billiard game to undergo another change? It would seem so if the reports which are emanating from the Middle West are to be given any credence. Out in Indianapolis and Cleveland roomkeepers are putting on the old-style four-ball game and it is not only stimulating interest in the game among the novices, but it is found that the increased room made possible by the additional ball being upon the table, makes the game more popular.

The old-style game wherein four balls were placed upon the table, called for two white eggs, as now in use, and two red ones. Harry Cooler, secretary of the Interstate Three-Cushion Billiard League, has suggested that roomkeepers in other cities encourage their players to add the additional red ball until they have mastered the rudiments of the game. It's a certainty that the placing of the fourth ball upon the table can not help but to improve the game of the amateur player and while that style of play has not been witnessed in the National Capital within the past decade. It nevertheless is worth a trial and there is every reason to believe that if once put on it would immediately appeal to those who are backward in attempting the more difficult three-ball game.

Frank Taberski, the "Silent Pole," and Ed. Ralph, of Hightstown, N. J., will meet for the Brunswick trophy, emblematic of the world's pocket billiard championship, on November 30 and December 1 and 2, the dates having been announced officially yesterday. This time Champion Taberski will not disappoint his Schenectady followers, as the match will be played in his home town at Odd Fellows' Hall. It will cover the regulation three nights of play, being contested in blocks of 160 points, total points to counts.

Taberski's improvement is explained by the fact that he never hit an ivory sphere until he entered the Chicago tourney. Before that he had played entirely with composition balls. Now he uses ivory exclusively and has mastered the English so that he has absolute control of his cue ball. This makes his position play nearly perfect, and he can plunk the cue ball into the pockets with the same precision that marked his game when he used only composition balls and beat everybody that dared lift a cue against him. Once he offered to play De Oro for any stakes that the Cuban might name, stipulating composition balls, which offer was declined.

LAFAYETTE DEFEATED BY LEHIGH, 16 TO 0

Lehigh Captures Fifty-first Annual Clash from Rivals.

Eaton, Pa., Nov. 25.—Lehigh was victorious in the fifty-first annual contest with Lafayette this afternoon. The final score was Lehigh, 16; Lafayette, 0. The score does not measure accurately the comparative strength of the two teams. They were very evenly matched. Lafayette failed to win largely because they did not employ straight football, in which they proved themselves superior to Lehigh. The line-up:

LEHIGH	Position	LAFAYETTE
W. McCarty	L. E.	Gano
Richards	L. E.	Mummet
Becker	L. E.	Gullick
MacDonald	Center	Gullick
McCart	R. E.	Ernst
Tate	R. E.	Lehman
Good	R. E.	Woodruff
Chenoweth	Q. B.	Taylor
Brumfield	R. E.	Ernst
Halsied	L. B.	Martin
Magnus	F. B.	Lehman

Substitutions—Lafayette: Weldon for Lehigh; Brandes for Ernst; Gano for Ellis; Ellis for Gano; Weldon for Ernst; Chenoweth for Lehigh; Johnson for Becker; Purcell for Chenoweth; Herrington for Purcell; Hurley for Halsied; Quist for Gano; Brandes for Lehigh; Weldon for Lehigh; Headlines—Tom Thorpe, of Columbus, field judge—Mike Whiting, of Cornell. Time of game—15 minutes.

WILL PLAY FOR THE SCHOLASTIC TITLE

The big game in scholastic football in the East among colored teams will take place Wednesday at the American League Park, Dunbar High School team and the team representing the Armstrong Manual Training School will be the contenders for the second annual school honors in this section.

The two teams seem pretty evenly matched. Armstrong has won from Annapolis Athletic Club and Baltimore High School, and lost to Storer College, Manassas and Howard Academy by close scores, while Dunbar tied Howard Academy, defeated Annapolis and lost to Storer.

Armstrong has a well running back field and at places is strong in the line. Holcombe, Parker, Bacon, Makel and Tinner are among the dependable players of the Armstrong aggregation. In the Dunbar line-up the veterans of proved ability are Hayes, Costin, Diggs and Haig.

Savoy, Beckett and Wilkon have been chosen to officiate and every means is being adopted to make the game a successful event.

OHIO GIVEN TITLE OVER NORTHWESTERN

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 25.—"Chick" Harley and Northwestern battled here today, and Harley won, 23 to 3. As the conference rules prohibit individuals from holding titles, Ohio State will have to be given credit for the victory. For three quarters Ohio and Northwestern battled evenly, the Buckeyes holding a three-point lead as a result of a Harley drop kick, until Driscoll tied up the score with another field goal. Then in the final period there was a streak of crimson down the field and Harley had covered 70 yards for the first touchdown of the game.

From then on the result was never in doubt. Harley marched down the field, with Harley doing most of the marching, ended in another touchdown. The final Ohio score came as a result of a fumble, and was scored by Capt. Zorenson.

TWO STAR OARSMEN DIE FIGHTING FOR ITALY

Blood poisoning from a bullet wound caused the death of Giuseppe Sinigaglia, the giant Italian oarsman, who won the diamond sculls in 1914 at the royal English Henley regatta. He was serving with the Italian troops in the Alps. Coincident with the death of Sinigaglia, Italy also lost Mariami, another Lake Como oarsman. This pair of oarsmen won many sculling races in competition with France, Germany, Belgium and English cracks on Italian courses.

EAST HAS IT ON WESTERN TEAMS

Eastern football seems to be superior to that of the West. Six intercollegiate clashes have been staged this year and the East has triumphed in five. The only victory for the West was the hair-raising battle which Michigan won from Syracuse, 14 to 13.

The Eastern accomplishments were:

Colgate, 13; Illinois, 5.
Yale, 12; Indiana, 10.
Army, 39; Notre Dame, 10.
Cornell, 22; Michigan, 20.
Pennsylvania, 10; Michigan, 7.

MOHAWKS TO MEET TROJANS FOR TITLE

What should prove to be one of the best amateur football games of the season is scheduled to be played at Union League Park, Fifteenth and H streets northeast, beginning at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when the Mohawks, champions of the District, play the Trojan Athletic Club, challengers for the title.

Manager McClure, of the Indians, if it is understood, will not be able to present his full regular line-up, due to the fact that several of the men are under the weather and as a result he perhaps will have to use some of his second-string men in today's game.

The Trojans will have McBride, of Eastern College; Kaplan, of Central; Cranston, of the Y. A. C.; Gerald, of Business, and Jack Daly, of Catholic University, in their line-up.

JACK VELOCK BECOMES I. N. S. SPORTS EDITOR

New York, Nov. 25.—The International News Service announces Jack VeLOCK, of Indianapolis, will become its sporting editor Monday, November 27, succeeding Frank G. Menke, whose resignation was recently accepted.

Mr. VeLOCK is well known throughout the country for his articles on football, boxing and other sports. The Middle West is especially familiar with his comment on football.

He will write the International News Service daily sport feature article, besides sport paragraphs and humorous verse on sport topics. In short, he expects to combine the feature idea with the sport "colony."

He will also cover as many large sporting events in person as possible.

In addition to Mr. VeLOCK, the International News Service is making plans to strengthen its sporting service by employing expert sport writers in several sections of the country.

JAPANESE GOLFERS PLAN CLUB OF OWN

New York, Nov. 25.—The Japanese golfers of the metropolitan district will have a golf course of their own, if the present plans go through.

W. Tillinghast, well-known golf course architect, has been consulted about the laying out of the proposed links, and he expects to furnish the committee of Japs with plans and specifications by the first of the year.

The site selected is on Long Island, but as the deal for the property has not been closed, no intimation has been given as to its location.

The clubhouse and grounds will be built with an idea of carrying out the effect of a Japanese garden. The details of this will be arranged by a Japanese landscape gardener.

There are at present about 300 Japs in the New York district who play golf or would be prospective members, which would be enough to make the proposition a success.
